this that and the other—

Orlando is always represented in some capacity or other at all prominent functions. LAWRENCE GENTILE was a guest at the dedication of Georgia Hall at Warm Springs Saturday night at which affair President ROOSEVELT was the guest of honor—Orlandoans returning from COL. HENRY DOHERTY'S big Florida Week program at the Miami Biltmore which is staged annually under the direction of the one and only CARL BYOIR, publicity genius, report "a good time was had by all"—The citizenry moved almost as a body to the Homecoming at Gainesville Saturday. Yours truly drove up with LOU KIMBALL of the GULF LIFE organization—BILL BLAND and T. K. JOHNSON still smiling from ear to ear—MERLE McELROY returns to Orlando surprised to find that his drug business had increased during his absence from the city—GEORGE BRASS ate so much that he popped all four buttons on his tuxedo—Friend CLARK of the Publicity Department of ROLLINS COLLEGE knows how to break the metropolitan sheets—FRED TEGDER has a couple of new stories which he attributes to the New American Oil Company ad man—R. B. WOOLFOLK holding the front line trenches in the FLORIDA CITRUS control committee—BILL WRIGLEY and A. H. BAILLEY of the WRIGLEY ENGRAVING CO., working overtime—CLARENCE VARNER all a twitter over the coming of BIG BILL TILDEN to the city to train for the season—You must see the big boy in action beginning next Saturday at Exposition Park—HOMER FULLER of the BEACHAM holding down the whole works while JOHNNY THOMAS, SPARKS district manager enjoys a needed rest in Atlanta—Now Portland, Oregon not to be outdone by California goes in for earthquakes in a big way—Seems that FORREST LAKE will have to play postmaster at Raiford awhile longer—LESTER ESCH, Orlando's number one winter visitor says the situation is well in and—No report from "What a Man" MILLIGAN—Artist JOSE ARENTZ busy night and day remarks that some day it will be worked out that there will be a reasonable amount of business in Orlando all year round without the summer slump and winter flurry—We hope he is right—some day—any day—good day.

WILBUR STOKES HEADS FIGHT CARD

The big bout for next Monday's card scheduled for the Coliseum is Wilbur Stokes vs. Jimmie Griffin. Stokes is probably one of the most popular middleweights ever to appear in Orlando and he will have plenty of tough competition against Griffin, who hails from Valdosta, Ga. Griffin holds a three round knockout over Billy Hood which is plenty of recommendation for him here.

According to Turner Scott, National Guard promoter, there will be three good activities to start at 8 sharp.

ORLANDO COUNTRY CLUB—Eighteen-hole golf course (par 70), tennis, clear water bathing, attractive, commodious club-house. The rendezvous of the social set. Only one and a half miles from the center of the downtown district.

on and off the avenue

When you notice a particularly outstanding and distinctive gown at the coming holiday festivities, you can make a mental note right now that it will, without doubt, be from Frances Slater. Evening gowns and wraps at this exclusive shop at 22 N. Orange Avenue always bespeak just the "last word" in style and smartness. Why not visit this ultra-distinctive shop and decide for yourself?

A good time? Certainly, anyone can have an enjoyable evening at the Flamingo. Just a few minutes ride out on the Cheney Highway and there you are. Cherry Owens' excellent dance music, a perfect floor, delicious Spanish or American style dinners—need any more be said!

With the influx of our winter residents, many will have to repair, alter or re-roof before we can hang out the "For Rent" sign. And for real dependable, and reasonable work call Jack Stevens, general contractor, at 5870. His estimate and suggestions will be more than pleasing to you and do wonders in the appearance of your home and apartments.

Many of our feminine readers, we know, are planning just what to wear to this or that dance during the coming holiday season. Perhaps you've seen a stunning model in one of our leading shops but just cannot afford to "indulge". Here is where you will welcome our advice to see Mrs. John Todd at 17½ S. Orange Avenue. Mrs. Todd can duplicate any model that you want at a remarkable reduction, and its style and individuality will still delight your fondest expectations.

Of interest to the people of Orange and nearby counties is the opening of Central Florida's exclusive club The Fern Park Dance and Club Garden at Fern Park. The Club, located on route No. 17 midway between Sanford and Orlando, will open for the winter season Saturday evening, Nov. 25. All members and friends are invited to attend the opening.

The Seminole Serenaders have been engaged for the season. Charming Miss Gladys Grey of Savannah will be hostess and entertainer. All those desiring membership cards may obtain them at the club on arrival.

Dinner served from 7 to 8:30 by reservation only. Phone 1218-M. A special dinner dance is scheduled for Thanksgiving. Oh, yes, an attractive Palm Room is open afternoon and evening for teas and bridge parties.

The Professional Artists Series, inaugurated with success last year by Miss Annie Russell in the theatre built in her honor at Rollins College, will be opened December 15 with the performance of Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" by the Annie Russell Company. Miss Russell will produce and direct the play.

Other events in the Series have been announced by Miss Russell as follows: On January 20 the Curtis String Quartet will make a "return engagement" to the Annie Russell Theatre, in a joint recital with Louis Bailly, famous French master of the viola; Josef Hofmann, whom musical critics consider the world's greatest pianist, will make his only appearance in Florida at the Theatre on February 5; Mme. Marie Sundelius, prima donna soprano and a former member of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will give a recital on February 9; Marie Theresa, formerly a member of Isadora Duncan's famous company, will give a dance recital on February 15; Benjamin De Loache, young American baritone who appeared in the Professional Artists Series last year, will return for a recital on March 3; and on March 12, Madame Lea Luboshutz, famous Russian violinist, and Boris Goldovsky, talented young pianist, both of whom were heard last winter at the Annie Russell Theatre, will conclude the season's Series with a joint recital.

Organ Vespers for Tuesday, November 28, will include numbers from Tchaikowski, Wagner, Franck, Lee and Ganne, Herman F. Siwert, has announced. These programs are given each Tuesday and Friday afternoon at 5:30 p. m. at Knowles Memorial Chapel, and are open to the public.

FREE TICKETS TO BEACHAM THEATRE

Best wishes are extended by the Greeter to the following friends and readers who are celebrating their birthday. A telephone call, a note of congratulations, a visit or a little gift will make the day happier for them.

To add to the birthday, the Greeter and the Beacham theatre invite each of these to attend the current picture at the BEACHAM, as the guest of the Greeter and the theatre. Those whose names are listed below, by properly identifying themselves, may get a special birthday ticket to the Beacham.

Have you noticed that the Perrydell is the leader when it comes to entertainments? There must be a reason for such popularity and of course, once you visit this outstanding tea house and gift shop, you, too, will know that reason. Nowhere can one find such a perfect setting for just a dinner or luncheon or for entertaining a large group of friends.

One of the best habits we can urge you to get, for your health's sake, is that of insisting on Vita Dairy Products. Pure and fresh milk, cream, butter, and cheese are very essential for good health and Vita products are the best. We suggest you visit John Pierson in the Orlando Food Palace.

Couldn't Miss Him—"Waiter, have you forgotten me?"

"Oh no sir, you are the stuffed calf's head."

Client: "Are prices reduced in this hotel if one stays more than a week?"

Porter: "I can't say—nobody has ever stayed more than a week."—Passing Show.

"How was the new maid?"

"She left on the evening train."

"How was that?"

"She came too late to go on the morning train."

Not many of us are really blessed with outstanding beauty, but everyone can do a lot toward improving your appearance and making yourself appear more attractive. Regular visits to Andre's will achieve that well-groomed attractiveness that is so noticeable and so much desired. At this salon of beauty, you will receive expert care and attention.

The dressmaking shop of Ruth Davis still appears to be more than busy.

Jessie Albee so busy she calls Advertising Headquarters for help—a good place to call if you need help in boosting your business—Advertise It.

A contractor whose name it is not necessary to mention, when attending a letting in a distant city, received a telegram from his wife reading "John, remember you are a married man."

His answer read:

"Telegram received too late."

Judge—"You say you stole because you were hungry?"

Accused—"Yes, sir."

Judge—"But that did not make you steal a whole side of bacon."

Accused—"You don't know my appetite, sir."

What Price Flint and Steel?—Mrs. Newrich had given the landscape artist carte blanche and he was showing her over the formal garden.

"What is that?" she asked. He told her it was a sundial. What's a sundial? He patiently explained how the sun, moving thru the heavens cast a shadow which is recorded on the dial indicating the time of the day. Mrs. Newrich beamed with interest.

"My goodness," she exclaimed, "these modern inventions! What will they be thinking of next?"

No Hurry—A man met his doctor in the street and stopped him to say: "Oh, I say, Doctor, such a peculiar thing has happened to my wife I think she must have got lockjaw, for she can't open her mouth at all." Then, after a short pause, he added: "Could you look around in about a week's time, and see if you can do anything for her?"
